EMMAUS SOCIETY

MISSION STATEMENT:

The Society's mission, simply stated, is to provide a community gathering place that will promote the Christian faith and education thereby fostering, encouraging and strengthening relationships between Christian families in the community.

PURPOSE:

The Society plans to own, maintain and otherwise hold commercial real estate which shall be made available, in whole or in part, to Christian organizations and groups for the purpose of promoting the Christian faith and education. Such groups may include, but are not limited to, Emmaus Christian School, various church groups, Girl Scout troops, Boy Scout troops, home school associations or community sports leagues.

MEMBERSHIP:

The Emmaus Society is comprised of members of the community who share a concern for promoting Christian faith and education in a non-denominational facility. All families that are enrolled in Emmaus Christian School for the purpose of providing a Christian education for their child(ren) are required to be active members of the Emmaus Society.
